Commissioner Vosburg wins Taubman Fellowship

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County Commissioner Kathy Vosburg was selected as a recipient of the prestigious Taubman Fellowship which offers local public officials the opportunity to sharpen their skills and learn new approaches to solving the public's problems.

Awarded by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments the fellowship will allow Vosburg to travel to Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government to participate in three weeks of classes at its Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government.

Vosburg (R-Chesterfield) is currently serving her third, two-year term representing District 25 (southern Chesterfield Township) for the Macomb County Board of Commissioners where she chairs the Planning & Economic Development Committee.

She also is a delegate to SEMCOG where she serves on the Community & Economic Development Advisory Council and chairs the Environmental Policy Advisory Committee.
